BRITAIN IS BOMBED BY ZEPPELIN RAIDERS

14,315-Ton Transport Transylvania Is Victim of Enemy Diver

BRITISH PLANES GIVE CHASE TO ATTACKER

Slight Material Damage Done By Airships; Man Slain In Norfolk Village

LONDON, May 24.—More than 400 were lost in the sinking of the British transport Transylvania, the Admiralty announced today.

The Transylvania was sunk May 4. The official statement today said the loss included:

Officers, 29.
Men, 373.
The Transylvania's captain.
Ten of the Transylvania's crew.
The Admiralty announced that the Transylvania was torpedoed.

The Transylvania was a steel screw ship of 14,315 tons, the property of the Anchor line. She was built in 1914 and was registered at Glasgow. The list shows the total losses to have been 413 lives.

The Transylvania before the war was in transatlantic service for a short time. She ran between New York and Glasgow. She was one of the newest and largest ships in transatlantic service.

LONDON, May 24.—Four or five German airships raided eastern counties of England last night, dropping a number of bombs and killing one man in a Norfolk village, Lord French, home defense commander, announced today. The bombs all fell on country districts and the damage was declared "negligible."

"The airships approached the coast shortly before midnight," Lord French said. "The sky was overcast and a thick bank of rain clouds made observation difficult. Four airships pursued an erratic course, being unable to locate their position. Our aeroplanes pursued them but the thick clouds enabled them to escape."

"Airships" presumably means Zeppelins. If so the present raid is the first since November 28 and the twenty-second since the start of the war. The total casualties have been 229 killed and 451 injured.

U. S. DESERTER SEEKS TO GET INTO ARMY

Since the charge against him is outlawed, officers do not know what to do. They may find a place for him in the army.

Last Chapter In Sensational Murder Case Is Written In Death Chamber

OSISING, N. Y., May 24.—The "little green door" opens for Dr. Arthur Warren Waite at Sing Sing prison tonight, and the electric chair's deadly current will jolt out his life in payment for the murder of his wife's father and mother.

Dr. Waite has been prepared for his end for months, declaring his readiness to expiate his sin by death, in the belief that he could enter "a new world" at peace.

The murder of Waite's father-in-law, John E. Peck of Grand Rapids, Mich., and his mother-in-law, by poison and by the use of germs, came to light in the spring of last year. Mrs. Peck died January 20, 1916. Her husband's life ended March 12, 1916. Waite admitted he planned to kill his wife also.

PARIS, May 24.—Eight thousand, six hundred German prisoners have been taken by French troops since May 1 in their offensive between Soissons and Auberive, today's official statement asserted, detailing further heavy losses inflicted on the enemy in repulse of violent attacks on the Vauclerc plateau.

The Vauclerc attack was a bloody check to the Germans. Their troops were literally thrown back to the starting point of the counter thrust. Prisoners captured were identified as belonging to four different German divisions, indicating that the enemy attack was by a force of not less than 60,000 men.

Except for this violent battle, the war office reported the front fairly quiet.

In the Champagne artillery was rather active in the region of Moronvilliers.

He refuses to explain his notations.

EVIDENCE CHAIN DRAWN FIRMER ABOUT ALLEGED BOY BANDITS

One of Trio Owns to Attempt to Rob L. A. Grocer, Who Was Shot In Head

That the three youths arrested at San Juan Capistrano Tuesday night were in an automobile stolen from Hollins & Arronsez of Los Angeles and that the newspaper clippings found in their grips told of hold-ups in which they were concerned, were among the developments today in the investigation conducted by Sheriff Jackson, joined in by Deputy Sheriffs Strong and Wright of Los Angeles.

One of the boys is believed to be the son of a well known Los Angeles man. That, however, is not yet definitely ascertained.

One of the trio has confessed that they were the young men who attempted to rob R. C. Mattox, a Los Angeles grocer, who struggled and who was shot in the head, the wound being slight. He has also confessed that they held up and robbed a taxi driver named R. Leat. These hold-ups were detailed in the clippings found in one of the suit cases taken from the boys.

This morning W. C. Hollins of Los Angeles identified the automobile in which the boys were riding when arrested by Constable Combs as one stolen from his firm in Los Angeles. The three youths were taken to Los Angeles this afternoon, and will be looked over there by several of those who have been robbed recently.

How U. S. Fleet Turns Out Gun Crews Told By United Press Man

BY CARL D. GROAT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE AMERICAN GREAT FLEET, May 24.—America's great fleet for the moment is a human factory—grinding out gun crews by the score.

Boys from every corner of the land, many of whom never saw a gun bigger than a Fourth of July pistol, are getting cured of "gun shyness," are learning to point, sight, and fire big guns, upon which merchant craft rely for defense against Germany's submarines.

Boys by the thousand are learning these and many other lessons which shall make them better men, men with the stuff that enters into heroism and national glory. For three days I have seen Uncle Sam's grim dreadnaughts with their men at work and at play. It is real work and good discipline. It is also good, wholesome play—a well-balanced program that turns striplings into men, and men into giants.

Most of those aboard are boys, but not all. There's a grandfather ensign. There's a Wall street broker, scrubbing decks and polishing brass. There's a Buffalo business man. There are college lads. Boys out of grammar school—folks out of every walk of life, to whom the lure of the sea and the call of the patriotism sound louder than flight else.

STORY OF THREE DAYS WITH FLEET

This is the story of three days with the fleet. Later we shall see those great hulks by day and by night, a sight to thrill the most blasé. We shall go with the men into their daily work and play, their waking and their sleeping, but today we are gunning with the lads, shooting up imaginary German U-boats with a gusto and an accuracy that augurs ill for any they may run across in later days.

We start at 5 a. m. The gray dreadnaughts roll a bit, with their yawning gun turrets sharp against the brightening sky. The ships seem straining to be "up and at 'em."

Hundreds, yes thousands—of men are astir at the call of reveille. They pile out of hammocks from every nook and corner of the great crafts, shining brass, peeling potatoes, setting everything ready for an establishment which is a floating town in itself.

GREAT ANCHOR CHAINS RATTLE, SMASH

The great anchor chains rattle and smash, as they heave the anchor out of the deep. The engines puff, as men below ships "down in the sub-cellar five floors below," shoot in great chunks of coal or turn on gasoline or oil. Bells and buzzers sound. The navigator gives his orders and the ships are off, a line of ugly warriors, streaking the sky with black smoke clouds.

Flags bearing strange devices signal out to the patrol ships, which scurry forth to open the way for the dreadnaughts.

The ships plough into the rolling waters, while the task of cleaning ship proceeds, and other drills including a snappy setting up physical exercise are under way.

Once as far as the secret orders call for, the war vessels spread out in a giant circle, targets are put overboard and the gunner proceeds. In squads the lads take their place beside the guns, practice at filling, sighting and firing the bigger cannon, while the pop, pop of one-pounders at the distant target gives a touch of realism to it all.

OTHERS TRAIN WITH DUMMY GUNS

Aft, on all the ships, other crews are training—with dummy guns—one pounders and five pounders. The shell and the powder bag go in like clockwork, and with a smash that makes it seem as though these lads were in deadly combat with a real enemy.

Up in the turrets with the tremendous 14-inch guns, other drills proceed.

Ensigns, fine, clean cut chaps, direct these tasks.

Their gun crews from magazine to turret run up close to 100 men. The crews work like the great machines they man. The shell, the powder, the ramming, all go ahead like magic.

Elsewhere, men are working out on charts just the range, elevation and so on of the target. The ensign yells directions down a multitude of tubes, pushes buttons, flashes lights, and then up in the secret "fire control" tower, a man pushes some more buttons and the whole thing shoots—all the big guns at once.

I sat up in a 14-inch double turret with a chap named Erickson, fresh from Annapolis only a short time ago. Clean cut and commanding of appearance, he had that gun crew working like the captain of a football or a baseball nine would have his men.

"Load," he'd shout and the crew from the below-ships men to the loaders and rammers in his turret would be off like fiends.

"Good. That took — seconds," he'd yell back after a particularly good performance.

CALL OF SECONDS IS CALL TO BATTLE

Over in the other turret, they heard that call of so many seconds and it was the call to battle. The second turret crew was a little greener than the others.

A big husky sailorman with great splashes of freckles sang out: "Come on there! That other gang with it in — seconds. Let's pep it up and give 'em hell." And the second crew was doing just that before that day's drill was over.

Somebody blundered once.

"Watch those lights," came the command.

"There's a green man here, and he didn't get it, sir," was the excuse. But the gun crew tended to that and the ensign didn't have to say more.

"Well, he's not so green that he can't see, is he?" growled some of the men trying to beat the records—and that was the last of the trouble with the man who didn't get the lights.

All day the big vessels shifted around, firing at the targets, and whipping men into shape to man the ships that go to sea with precious food cargoes. The gun crews develop inside three months into expert marksmen. They go out now by the score, ready to do battle with any U-boat that sticks its nose out of the water.

Gunners training constitutes the biggest present task of the great fleet, but it must assimilate and train eager thousands for all the work that lies ahead of America in naval warfare. And, it has willing hands and clear heads for the job cut out.

FAILURE OF SLAV PACT CHAGRINS BERLIN

German Propaganda to Secure War End at Own Price Will Be Blasted

WASHINGTON TO BLOCK KAISER'S NEW MOVES

Refusal of Passports to Men To Go to Stockholm Will Hearten Russia

BY CARL D. GROAT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 24.—America's forthcoming statement against the Russia situation will probably blast for all time Germany's insidious peace-at-any-price propaganda.

This statement, taken with the government refusal to give any American passports to the German-engineered Socialist conference in Stockholm next month, will probably serve the double purpose of heartening Russia and of exposing to the world a new chapter of German intrigue.

On the surface the statement will be a discussion of the "no annexation, no indemnities" slogan which Berlin has fostered while furthering the peace spirit of Socialists and others in Russia.

But some officials here have frankly said that if the Stockholm conference had succeeded in its program, a separate Russian peace would have been concluded—and the "no annexation, no indemnities" slogan would have been included. Hence, this government now proposes to thwart that program.

To Bare Teuton Cunning
The statement will doubtless expose the German plans in all their cunning. It will show that democracy cannot succeed in the new Russia while Hohenzollernism continues unbridled in Germany.

France has already blazed the way by her premiere's statement showing that the allies have no rapacious aims of conquest and indemnity, but that they demand reparation and surrender of German conquered territory.

England and France will probably join, too, in the American action of refusing passports to any of their subjects for attending the Stockholm conference. This conference, the United States Government has learned, was engineered secretly by Germany, though ostensibly on the initiative of Socialists themselves.

Morris Hillquit, Victor Berger and Algernon Lee, Socialists who have desired to be represented, are claimed by other members of the American Socialists to represent a pro-German viewpoint rather than a truly Socialist spirit.

Teuton-Russ Peace Peril

As matters now stand, international experts here foresee a greatly prolonged struggle if Russia should be tricked into a separate peace. Some of the highest government officials have told the United Press that it would take two to three years of war, in which the United States would have to put forth her greatest efforts.

Hence, the blocking of the Stockholm conference, and hence the plan to hearten Russia by a clearcut response and interpretation of the "no annexation" program.

Incidentally, the statement may make a clearer pronouncement of America's war aims than the generalities thus far presented.

FAILURE OF SEPARATE PACT CHAGRINS BERLIN

AMSTERDAM, May 24.—"Russia's rejection of a separate peace is a most bitter disappointment," declared the German Socialist organ, Vorwarts, today, the first admission of failure of the German peace efforts which the German censors have permitted to pass.

"The rejection is all the fault of Imperial Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg," the Vorwarts editorial continued. "If he had, like Austria, announced Germany had no intention

MAXWELL MAKES 35.6 MILES ON ONE GALLON OF GAS

Economy Test By Layton Bros. Yesterday Brought Satisfactory Results

From the Maxwell garage, Fourth and French streets, Santa Ana, to Laguna Beach and back to Tustin and around the turn at First and B streets, Tustin, just 35.6 miles, on one little old gallon of Red Crown gasoline—that's what a privately owned Maxwell car did yesterday afternoon. The car belongs to Mrs. S. J. Goodrich of this city. Another car, owned by Clem Dawes, made 32.5 miles.

Yesterday was the date of the National Economy test conducted by Maxwell agents in all parts of the United States and Canada, and Layton Brothers, local agents, made the test along with thousands of other agents. And it was eminently satisfactory in every particular. Two machines borrowed from owners for the test were used wherever runs were made.

Beating up against a strong wind to Laguna Beach and maintaining a speed of fifteen miles an hour, the two local machines made this remarkable record. Had the course been in another direction, where the wind was not so strong, the mileage would have been even greater. Each machine carried four passengers, including the driver. The Goodrich machine was driven by Lynn Layton, with M. Phillips of Santa Ana, C. J. Overhiser and H. L. Dillingham of Orange as official observers, Dillingham being a newspaper man, representing the Orange News. The machine is a 1917 car.

Alfred W. Krieger, mechanic at the Maxwell garage, was at the wheel of the Dawes car, and with him were G. Gates, E. Cox and Horace Fine of the Register. This machine has been in use about a year.

The regular equipment was used on each of the machines, the tops being lowered. The Laguna road was selected because it is about the average, combining level and hilly stretches. The little machines at the fifteen-mile clip made the grades in Laguna canyon without the engines laboring in the least.

That the speed designated for the test produces the best mileage was fully demonstrated by one of the drivers in yesterday's run.

The day before a car not used yesterday was run over the same course at a speed of about 25 miles per hour, and when the car stopped after burning up one gallon of gasoline the speedometer registered 28.3 miles.

TEN YEAR OLD BOY MAKES LONG JOURNEY ALL BY HIS LONESOME

Bonnie Estes, 10 years old, is as independent in traveling as many people several times his age. The little fellow arrived here last night upon a visit to his brother, Lawrence Estes, assistant pressman in the Register's press room.

Bonnie left his home in Tulsa, Oklahoma, last Sunday at noon and arrived at the Santa Fe station on the Owl this morning at 1:30. He napped in the depot waiting room until daylight, when he started out to find the home of his brother. He had the name of the street and the street number, and without assistance further than inquiring the location of the street found the residence of his brother and marched into the home as big as life and surprised his relatives.

An interesting and entertaining little fellow, Bonnie made friends with passengers on the train he came to California on. He had a delightful trip and longs for a repetition. He made all changes en route without assistance, his last change being in Los Angeles.

The little traveler will remain in Santa Ana all summer and when he returns home will go by himself.

The brother resides at 1019 West Pine and was anticipating the arrival of Bonnie. The former met trains yesterday, but did not expect the little traveler on the Owl.

TWO MEN FROM CO. L GO TO THE PRESIDIO

Sergts. Pease and Christianson Appointed For Officers Training Camp

First Sergeant Walter J. Pease and Quartermaster Sergeant Earle D. Christianson have been selected from Company L, Seventh California Regiment, to go to the Presidio to train for officers in the army reserve.

Both Pease and Christianson, who were formerly assistants in the local Western Union office here, are well known in Santa Ana. They were with Company L at the border, and are well qualified for commissions. Other members of the company are hoping for appointments to the training camp later on.

Yesterday in San Francisco announcement was made of the selection of 201 National Guardsmen in the Western Department of the Army, comprising Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Wyoming, Utah and Montana, to attend the training camp at the Presidio. Men in the coast artillery, cavalry, infantry, medical corps and field artillery branches of the service were selected. Reservations had been made for them by War Department orders.

PENNSYLVANIA HOLDS FARM AND GARDEN DAY

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 24.—Originally intended as Pennsylvania's third annual "Good Roads Day," today became a state-wide "Farm and Garden Day," by proclamation of Governor Brumbaugh.

War had not been declared when this was designated as "Good Roads Day." With the declaration, state and local highway authorities began to rush improvement. In changing the character, Governor Brumbaugh remarked that food had now become the greatest consideration.

The governor himself will do "his bit in farm and garden."

BEANS OUST ALFALFA ON MODESTO RANCHES

MODESTO, May 24.—The once humble bean has made serious inroads into the domain of the proud alfalfa which long has held unquestioned sway in the Modesto irrigation district. In the last two years, engineers' reports show, there has been a decrease of 10,000 acres in the amount of alfalfa planted, although that crop is not yet a back number, having 31,440 acres to its credit. Beans, on the other hand, have increased in acreage from 5,734 acres for beans and grains combined in 1917, to 17,466 acres for the bean-grain crop in 1917.

Metzgar Receiving Inquiries From Families On Local Help Situation

That many families residing in different cities in Southern California would like to come to Santa Ana to work through the apricot and walnut harvesting seasons is evidenced by the number of inquiries Secretary Metzgar of the Chamber of Commerce is receiving. He receives letters and personal requests for information on the help situation almost daily from people outside the city.

Metzgar is not going into the employment agency business but if growers will file their names with him, with the amount of help they will probably need, etc., he will be in position to assist both the farmers wanting help and the parties looking for work.

It is probable that those coming from a distance would want to camp in the orchards and proper facilities would have to be provided by growers taking on such help.

With the opening of the cannery on East First street about the middle of July and the apricot pitting season starting about the same time on a crop that will be one of the largest ever produced in the valley, there is every possibility of there being a shortage of local help. Should a scarcity of help develop, the employment of women and girls from neighboring cities in Southern California will help to relieve the situation.

The pitting season under normal conditions usually calls for the service of every boy, girl and woman in this immediate section. The cannery will probably require the services of 150 or 200 women and girls who have heretofore found work in the apricots.

Huntington, according to telegraphic advices here. Huntington bought the picture. He began to doubt the picture's genuineness, bringing suit, which ended when the art firm admitted the painting was not by Romney.

DRAWING PAY IS HARD FOR U. S. ARMY GERMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—Max Heimbrod, for nineteen years an American soldier, was unable to get into Fort Mason today to draw his pay without an alien enemy permit from U. S. Marshal Holohan. Heimbrod, on leave from the Philippines, called at the fort in uniform and under questioning admitted he was born in Germany and had not become a citizen. Army officers sent him to Holohan, who verified his story. Later he drew his pay at the fort with a special permit to enter the half mile barred zone.

CUT BUTTER WASTE, IS FARMS DEPT. WARNING

WASHINGTON, May 24.—If every one of the 20,000,000 American households should waste 1/4 ounce of butter daily, the loss would be 114,062,500 pounds a year, the product of over half a million cows, according to Department of Agriculture figures today. If only one in every 100 homes wasted that 1/4 pound, the loss would total over 1,000,000 pounds annually. The department issued these statistics to show why no butter whatever should be wasted.

PLAN NEW GUARD UNITS WASHINGTON, May 23.—To supply the tactical formations needed for the establishment of the sixteen divisions of the National Guard, provided for in the War Department's plans, scores of new regiments of guard artillery, engineers, signal troops and cavalry will be organized soon.

The next ship in this service, the captain declared, will bring the first lot of immigrants from Japan to Brazil, 5000 of whom must arrive before the end of December, according to a contract signed by the Brazilian State of Sao Paulo and the Japanese government.

NO BABY PLAGUE IN N. Y. THIS YEAR, VIEW

NEW YORK, May 24.—Infantile paralysis may break out this summer in cities where it was quiescent last year, according to a bulletin issued by the board of health today.

The department does not expect another epidemic here for some time. In the past they have come four or five years apart. Health Commissioner Emerson is experimenting to see whether the infection may originate in decayed teeth, as has been suggested by Dr. Louis Focher, a specialist in children's diseases.

HEAVY TIMBER IS PLACED BY WOMEN

Mrs. Fern Bishop and Mrs. Ruddell Show "Hubbies" How to Work

Picking up a 2x8x20 timber and placing it in position as the first of the building operations in the erection of a new walnut packing house at Saticoy by Bishop and Cole of this city, Mrs. Fern Bishop of this city and Mrs. Ruddell of Tustin demonstrated to their husbands and other men present that they are "some carpenters" themselves. This was the first timber laid on the foundation, and the women picked up the heavy piece and carried it on their shoulders to its position on the foundation. Work on the plant is being rushed as rapidly as possible, as prospects of the crop in that section maturing earlier than usual necessitates completion of the contract by the first of August. Twenty-six carpenters are employed on the job.

The builders are coming on the grounds, with the wives of a number of the workmen taking care of the camp and making observations and getting pointers on contracting so that they might take up the business of their husbands should the latter be called to the colors.

SELF-STYLED AIDE OF KAISER IS ARRESTED

WOODLAND, Cal., May 24.—Captain H. Weber, who says he is a German "observer," would not salute the American flag even to keep out of jail. Not only that, but he freely expressed the opinion today that President Wilson is "the greatest enemy of the German people" and he declared he owes allegiance to none but the Kaiser. These things he told to Sheriff Monroe following his arrest as a spy suspect.

Weber says for sixteen years he has traveled as an "observer"—he insists he is not a spy—for the German government. He says he fought with the Cuban insurgents and with the Boers in order to get inside information on the fighting methods of other countries. He says his duty was to get maps, photographs and data for the use of the German government.

MOTORS DESIGNED FOR LONG FLIGHT TESTED

AEROPLANES TO TAKE AIR HERE SATURDAY

First Field Meet of S. A. Aero Club to Be Held at Poly Field

Aeroplanes of various sizes and makes will take the air at Poly field next Saturday afternoon in the first field meet of the Santa Ana Aero Club. The meet will be from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The club's membership is composed of twelve or fourteen boys of the city and they have been plying themselves in making aeroplanes and testing them out for the meet Saturday.

The planes will be hand-launched and once in the air their speed and the distance they go will depend largely on the skill in their making and the wind.

They are simply models of aeroplanes and between ten and twelve models will be in the contest.

Millard Boyd is president of the club and the boys forming the club are enthusiastic over their models.

Officials of the contest have not yet been named.

The boys invite the public to witness the demonstration.

MAN U. S. SAVED FROM DEATH WILL TESTIFY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—Returning as quietly as he left but with the sanction of the government back of him, Jack B. Starr-Hunt, supercargo of the Jebson filibustering steamer Maverick which slipped to sea from San Francisco two years ago to carry munitions to Indian revolutionists in Los Angeles. He will give valuable evidence in the government's prosecution of Ram Chandra and others on charges of plotting a Hindu revolution. Hunt was taken from the Maverick when it was captured off Batavia by a Dutch cruiser and was taken to India, but the American government, which wanted Hunt's testimony, saved him from execution.

S. F. BANKS TELL NEW LIBERTY BOND PLAN

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—Persons buying liberty bonds through the Associated Savings Banks of San Francisco will have more than a year to pay for them, according to a plan announced today. Bonds of any denomination may be secured by paying ten per cent down and the balance in installments extending over a year. Thus, $10 down and $7.50 monthly will buy a $100 bond. Telegrams from all Pacific coast states are coming to the bond committee here detailing progress of the plan. Twelve banks experts today are en route to different sections of the coast to assist in promoting the sales.

LONG BEACH PIER IS ATTACHED BY SHERIFF

LONG BEACH, May 24.—Recalling the tragedy of Empire Day here four years ago today in which two score persons met death, Sheriff Cline today will levy attachment on city property in satisfaction of a judgment for $8312.55, covering the death of Mrs. Edith Chafor, one of the victims. Instructions to the sheriff was that he levy upon the auditorium, building, Pine avenue pier, thirty-seventh place pier, wharves and docks and 500 acres of city land, exempting only the city hall and city jail. The city will be compelled to bid in the property and thus the judgment satisfied. A son of the dead woman instituted proceedings.

NEWSPAPERS STOP WOUNDS
NEW YORK, May 24.—Newspapers are being used in France to stop the wounds of soldiers, owing to the lack of surgical dressings, according to word received here. An appeal asks for an increased supply of dressings.

ARMY CAMP SITE STILL UNNAMED OFFICIALLY

Mayor Woodman Claims Site Near Angel City Has Been Selected

With Mayor Woodman of Los Angeles today declaring that he had positive assurance that a site near Los Angeles would be selected for the concentration camp in Southern California, and Los Angeles papers announcing yesterday that San Diego had been selected as the location, Orange county people are still waiting with eagerness some definite announcement from the committee appointed to name the site.

Whether location of the camp on the San Joaquin ranch has been passed from consideration by the committee is not known definitely. The Chamber of Commerce committee has had no word from the army officers who visited the site here a few days ago, and will probably get no word until a definite decision is reached.

It is known that the army committee was deeply impressed with the site inspected on the Irvine ranch, because of its many natural advantages for use as a concentration camp. Whether the importance of the acreage in the production of beans outweighs the advantages of the place as a camp site is not known either, but it is believed that if the location has been eliminated, this was the point that determined the committee in dismissing it from consideration.

Reporting on the site situation, a Los Angeles paper this morning says:

"Mayor Woodman yesterday declared emphatically that Los Angeles will have the new army training camp, one of the three to be established on the Pacific coast. He stated that it was impossible to name the persons who had given him positive information along this line, but stated that the source of his knowledge was so authoritative that he was willing to make the statement."

"Just which site has been determined on cannot yet be stated. It may be in San Fernando Valley, not far from Newhall tunnel; on the Dominguez ranch, between Los Angeles and the harbor, or on the Baldwin ranch at Santa Anita. All of these locations have been visited by army officers, and have been considered in a favorable light. Any one of them meets requirements."

EPISCOPALIANS URGE STRONG DRINK BAN

LOS ANGELES, May 24.—The Los Angeles diocese of the Episcopal church today will forward to President Wilson for his recommendation to Congress resolutions urging the passage of a law as a war measure prohibiting the manufacture of whiskey or alcohol from grain. "Such measure will help to prevent food shortage," says the resolution, "will promote national efficiency in the army" and remove "the menace of intemperance and those diseases of which a high percentage is traced to drink." The diocese is in annual convention here.

ROBERT C. LOUCKS OF L. A. HEADS PYTHIANS

REDDING, Cal., May 24.—Robert G. Loucks of Los Angeles is the new grand chancellor of the California Knights of Pythias. Balloting for Grand Prelate will be continued by the Grand Lodge, no selection having resulted from yesterday's ballots.

Other grand officers elected are: Vice Chancellor, George F. Cummings, Fresno; Supreme Representatives, Judges E. C. Hart, Sacramento, and B. F. Bledsoe, Los Angeles; Master-at-Arms, A. L. McClarty, Los Angeles; Trustees, H. Davis, Richmond and W. R. Meyers, Los Angeles; Inner Guard, C. Vernison, Ferris; Outer Guard, George D. Dixon, San Francisco.

DOOMED TO DIE, DOG IS HERO; LIFE SAVED

LOS ANGELES, May 24.—Doomed to die at the city pound today, "Fannie," an unclaimed Collie, won life and a home when she discovered a house in flames and sounded the alarm by persistently barking and tugging at her would-be executioner. While Humane Officer Wilson was repairing his auto to drive "Fannie" to the death grounds, the dog tugged at his coat and barked persistently. Finally attracted, Wilson discovered the cookhouse in flames. The blaze was extinguished and Fannie rewarded with a collar, a ribbon and the honor of watch dog of the city pound.

LIBERTY BOND SALE CAMPAIGN ON AT S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—San Francisco's Liberty Bond committee is optimistic over the prospects of San Francisco buying her $42,000,000 of Liberty Bonds within the next three weeks. The city has taken hold of the bond campaign in earnest. The police department is working for the sale of Liberty Bonds and policemen are buying them. Captain Anderson of the southern station already has advised his men to invest in bonds not only for the good of the nation but as a sane investment. Captain Dan O'Brien, chief clerk of the department, declares that over 90 per cent of the city's 900 policemen will buy bonds. The Marine Engineers, local 35, have agreed to take $10,000 in bonds.

CANADIANS DODGE DRAFT

FEW LIGHT SHOWERS FALL, SO FAR NOT ENOUGH TO DAMAGE

This morning a light shower fell here and at times there was a drizzle in the air. Last night there was some rain in the foothills. So far there has not been rain enough to do either good or harm. Should it clear, the hay that is wet would quickly dry. Sugar beets would benefit by rain. It was reported that over an inch of rain has fallen in the Trabuca canyon since yesterday noon. There were heavy showers in that direction this morning.

W. C. CHURCH DEAD
NEW YORK, May 24.—One of the ablest military authorities in the country, William Conant Church, editor of the Army and Navy Journal, is dead today. He was 81 years old.

ALLEGED KIDNAPPER LOSES RACE OF WITS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—Over two years ago Mrs. Christian Kuhnle obtained a divorce and custody of her 11-year-old daughter, Kuhnle, it is claimed, promptly kidnapped the child. For two years she received letters from him but could not locate him. Recently, through their channels of communication, she pleaded with Kuhnle for reconciliation and he promised to meet her at the San Francisco ferry. She arrived and Kuhnle, with the little girl, kept his promise. Mrs. Kuhnle wasn't alone, however. William Prohl and Barney Reihl, detectives, were on deck, too. They arrested Kuhnle on a Chicago warrant and Judge Murasky soon placed Margaret in her mother's custody. Mother and daughter will return to Chicago. So will husband and father. But he will go to face a charge of kidnapping his daughter.

PETROGRAD, May 24.—A tour of inspection of all the military fronts is being made by War Minister Kerensky, who left Petrograd in a special train.

Asbestos a Mineral

Asbestos, from the Greek word meaning inextinguishable or unconsumable, is a rock consisting of fine, silky, elastic fibres. This wonderful stone has been found in Canada, New South Wales, Sweden, Scotland, Corsica, Russia, and Alpine Countries. In the United States there are deposits of it in Georgia, North Carolina, Vermont, Wyoming, Arizona, California and Colorado. Asbestos rock is found in several forms. One of the most usual forms, Amphibole, is a long fibred deposit occurring in veins and pockets. A short fibred variety, Chrysotile, is generally found in massive serpentine, although it does occur in veins and pockets. Many uses have been discovered for the mineral and new products containing it are being produced constantly. It is employed by chemists for heat tests, and for filtering cloths for acids. Among the insulations made of asbestos are mentioned pipe coverings, stove and furnace linings, boiler coverings, fire box lining or cements for high temperatures, smoke stack linings, etc. A few other products which contain it are—paint, clothing and cloth, paper, roofing, shingles, wood, putty, brake lining and brake blocks, packing, switch boards, felt, underground conduit, table mats and covers rope, mineral wool, stucco or plaster, theatre curtains, etc. Some of the world's finest mines are in Canada although there are several excellent ones in Arizona. It is said that the H. W. Johns-Manville Company are the largest manufacturers of asbestos products.

THE BOY SCOUTS

One of the finest organizations instituted in recent years is that of the Boy Scouts. We are always anxious to welcome any movement that aids in solving the boy problem, easily listed as one of the greatest problems that humans have to deal with. The Boy Scouts as an organization comes as near understanding the average boy as it is possible for an organization to understand. While every boy is a problem unto himself, there is among all normal boys certain characteristics which under proper direction will develop the mind, soul and body in the way that they should go. The Boy Scouts has seized upon those characteristics, and is doing a great work the country over in making men out of boys.

Every boy loves the out-of-doors. To every boy camp life and scouting are a lure to imagination. Through association with the boys in the fulfillment of their craving for activity in the open, Scoutmasters are enabled to get a hold on the thoughts of the boys. They are enabled to inculcate principles of behavior and manliness and to encourage specific acts of courtesy and kindness.

Should the present war last for many months, the Boy Scouts as an organization are going to be called upon for specific duty at home for the Stars and Stripes. The enthusiasm and the devotion of the boy will not be found wanting in whatever tasks are assigned to them.

Santa Ana has several effective Boy Scout organizations. Their membership should be increased until every Boy Scout age in Santa Ana is allied with some one of the organizations. Parents will find that the time spent by their sons with the Boy Scouts will be as good as any schooling. Failure to have their boy enlisted with the Boy Scouts raises a point for argument. The decision in the argument can hardly be otherwise than in favor of enlistment.

ANOTHER FAKE

The earthquake story faker has been busy again. In the last year or two a number of these stories have been sent to eastern papers by some man or woman who lives in Southern California. A few months ago the correspondent sent out a story telling about an earthquake at Santa Ana, when as a matter of fact there had been no earthquake here at that time and when as a matter of fact Santa Ana in its forty-five years of existence has never suffered damage from earthquake shocks.

Here is the most recent fabrication of the earthquake artist: Richfield, Calif., May 19.—Several houses were wrecked by an earthquake which occurred here shortly before midnight last night. The first shock was followed by a slighter one an hour later. Reports from Santa Ana, near here, stated that the first tremor was felt there.

This story appeared on the first page of the Springfield (Ohio) Sun last Sunday under a heading that said: "Quake Wrecks Homes—No Loss of Life Reported from California Tremor." Upon its editorial page the Springfield (Ohio) Sun announces that it receives a full Associated Press report, but the paper does not carry lines to show which of its items are A. P. and which are special correspondence.

The report is both ridiculous and upon its face malicious. No houses were wrecked at Richfield. No damage was done anywhere in Orange County or in Southern California. A slight tremor was felt, but it was not enough to cause alarm and certainly it was insufficient for a foundation for the item printed in the Ohio paper and probably printed in other eastern papers.

10 BILLIONS WILL BE SPENT IN U. S. YEARLY

WASHINGTON, May 24.—A gigantic buying program, controlled by a man who would be the world's super-buyer, because into his hands the nations at war with Germany would place $10,000,000,000 annually, is being planned. For the sake of attaining maximum efficiency it is proposed that the American government pool its purchasing with all the allies, constructing a buying machine into which hundreds of experts would fit, with a "super-buyer" in charge.

How to Answer Registration Questions Told Points Upon Queries June 5 Are Explained

These questions will be asked of male residents of Orange County on Tuesday, June 5, one week from next Tuesday:

Questions will be asked for you to answer in the order in which they appear on this paper. These questions are set out below with detailed information to help you answer them.

Do not write on, mark, or otherwise mutilate these instructions. Do not remove them. They should be carefully read so that you will have your answers ready when you go before the Registrar.

All answers will be written on the Registration Card in ink by the Registrar, who should be careful to spell all names correctly and to write legibly.

1. Name in full. Age in years. This means all your names spelled out in full. State your age today in years only. Disregard additional months or days. Be prepared to say "19," or "25," not "19 yrs. 3 mos.," or the like.

2. Home address. This means the place where you have your permanent home, not the place where you work. Be prepared to give the address in this way: "232 Main Street, Chicago, Cook County, Illinois;" that is, give number and name of street first, then town, then county and state.

3. Date of birth. Write your birthday (month, day, and year) on a piece of paper before "August 5, 1894."

If you do not remember the year, start to answer as you would if someone asked you your birthday, as "August 5th." Then say "on my birthday this year I will be (or was) — years old." The Registrar will then fill in the year of birth. Many people do not carry in mind the year they were born. This may be obtained by the Registrar by subtracting the age in years on this year's birthday from 1917.

4. Are you (1) a natural-born citizen; (2) a naturalized citizen; (3) an alien; (4) or have you declared your intention to become a citizen (specify which)?

(1) If you were born in the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii, you are a natural-born citizen, no matter what may have been the citizenship or nationality of your parents. If you were born in Porto Rico, you are a citizen of the United States, unless you were born of alien parentage. If you were born abroad, you are still a citizen of the United States if your father was a citizen of the United States at the time you were born, unless you have expatriated yourself.

(2) You are a naturalized citizen if you have completed your naturalization; that is, if you have "taken final papers." But you are not a citizen if you have only declared your intention to become a citizen (that is, if you have only "taken out first papers"); in the latter case you are only a "declarant."

You are also a naturalized citizen if, although foreign born, your father or surviving parent became fully naturalized while you were under 21 years of age, and if you came to the United States under 21.

(3) You are a naturalized citizen, although a citizen or subject of some foreign country, you have declared on oath before a naturalization court your intention to become a citizen of the United States. Receipt from the clerk of the court of the certified copy of such declaration is often called "taking out first papers." You are not a declarant if your first paper was taken out after September 26, 1906, and is more than 7 years old.

(4) You are an alien if you do not fall within one of the three classes above mentioned.

5. Where were you born? First name the town, then the state, then the country, as "Columbus, Ohio;" "Vienna, Austria;" "Paris, France;" "Sofia, Bulgaria."

6. If not a citizen, of what country are you a citizen or subject? This need be answered only by aliens and declarants. Remember that a "declarant" is not yet a citizen of the United States. If an alien or declarant, state the name of your country, as "France," "Japan," "China," etc.

7. What is your present trade, occupation, or office? This does not ask what you once did, nor what you have done most of the time, nor what you are best fitted to do. IT ASKS WHAT YOUR JOB IS RIGHT NOW. State briefly, as "Farmer," "Miner," "Student," "Laborer (on farm, in rolling mill, in automobile, wagon, or other factory)," "Machinist in automobile factory," etc. If you hold an office under State or Federal government, name the office you hold. If you are in one of the following offices or employments, use one of the names hereafter mentioned:

"Customhouse clerk," "employed in the transmission of the mails," or "employed in an armory, arsenal, or navy yard," "mariner, actually employed in the sea service of citizen or merchant within the United States."

8. By whom employed? Where employed? If you are working for an individual, firm, corporation, or association, state its name. If in business, trade, profession, or employment for yourself, so state. If you are an officer of the State or Federal government, say whether your office is under the United States, the State, the county, or a municipality. In answer to the question as to where you are employed, give the town, county, and State where you work.

9. Have you a father, mother, wife, child under 12, or a sister or brother under 12 solely dependent upon you for support (specify which)? Consider your answer thoughtfully. If it is true that there is another mouth than your own which you alone have a duty to feed, do not let your military ardor interfere with the wish of the Nation to reduce war's misery to a minimum. On the other hand, unless the person you have in mind is solely dependent on you, do not hide behind petticoats or children.

10. Married or single (which)? Race (specify which)? This does not ask whether you were once married, but whether you are married now. In answer to the question as to your race, state briefly whether "Caucasian," "Mongolian," "Negro," "Malayan," or "Indian."

11. What military service have you had? Rank? Branch? Years? Nation or State? No matter what country you served, you must give complete information. In answering these questions, first name your rank, using one of the following words: "Commissioned officer," "Noncommissioned officer," "Private." Next state branch in which you served in one of the following words: "Infantry," "Cavalry," "Artillery," "Medical," "Signal," "Aviation," "Supply," "Marine," "Navy." Next, state the number of years service, not counting time spent in the Reserve. Finally, name the Nation or State you served. If you served under the United States or one of the States of the United States, name your service in one of the following terms: "National Guard (of such and such a state)," "Militia (of such and such a state)," "Volunteers of United States," or "Regular Army (Navy) of United States."

12. Do you claim exemption from draft? Specify grounds. Because you claim exemption from draft, it by no means follows that you are exempt. For the information of the War Department you should make a claim now if you intend to prosecute it. Some persons will be exempted on account of their occupations or offices, some on account of the fact that they have relatives dependent upon them for support. Your answer touching these things will be important in supporting the claim you now intend to make in your answer to the present questions. Be sure, therefore, that the grounds you now state are in conformity with your answers to questions 7 and 8. In stating grounds you claim as exempting you, use one of the following terms: If you claim to be an executive, legislative, or judicial officer of the State or Nation, name your office and say whether it is an office of the State or Nation. If you claim to be a member of a religious sect whose creed forbids its members to participate in war in any form, simply name the sect. If you are employed in the transmission of the United States mails or as an artificer or workman in an armory, arsenal, or navy yard of the United States, or if you are a mariner employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the United States, so state. If you are a felon or otherwise morally deficient and desire to claim exemption on that ground, state your ground briefly. If you claim physical disability, state that briefly. If you claim exemption on any other ground, state your ground briefly.

STATE DEPT. PRAISES SELF-CENSORED PRESS

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The State Department is appreciative of the fact that the newspapers, by their cooperation in not publishing details of movements, made it possible for the French mission on only to travel in this country with entire safety, but also to depart without any intimation being given that might have made their journey unsafe, an official statement says.

In a few days the trouble entirely disappeared and has never returned." Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough.

The damage at Lisbon during the recent rioting is reported to exceed ten million pesetas.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James

Answering it "What good can it do to reopen the sea lanes to Europe, if there is no food to send over the seas when its lanes are reopened. Answer that."

"Yea, bo," as some of the funny chaps say. However, the question is easy to answer: It wouldn't do a bit of good.

The question quoted is the climax of a journalistic spasm. Naturally it provokes another query, to-wit: Why throw a fit?

This country always has raised crops and an observer looking about notes no tendency to abate the useful activity. On the contrary.

The real problem is not as to the production of foodstuffs, but how to prevent them being cornered by a conscienceless bunch of gamblers, and the price run up, to the robbery point, where, in respect of many staples, it is now.

To my mind the fellows who have boosted flour, for example, until the burden is felt by every consumer, are worse than ordinary thieves, because their larcenous tendencies have also the color of treason.

Throw those plotters into prison, if you must throw something, but cease throwing fits.

Compliments to a Lady

A woman named Tedford seemed almost continually to be mixed up in a row over somebody's will, the identity of testator apparently a matter of no consequence. Her governing notion is that any decedent leaving property necessarily should have left it to her, or some kin. And strangely enough, the courts permit their time to be wasted by such monkey business.

My acquaintance with the habitual assailant of last wills and testaments was acquired during one call she made to the editorial rooms where I was grinding out food for thought. A poem had been reprinted by the paper and she was much aggrieved that it had been credited to James Whitcomb Riley, because, as she affirmed, it was her own creation. This was a poem concerning the Raggedy Man. By questioning I ascertained that she also was the author of Horatius at the Bridge, of Mary's Little Lamb and Comin' Through the Rye. In fact, I was unable to find a single verse of which she was not the author.

So it must be admitted that the lady is talented. It is a pity to observe her devoting her energies to litigation instead of literature.

We're With You, Doctor

Dr. Wiley says that American breweries and distilleries use enough grain every year to feed 12,000,000 people.

It is to be remembered that if people are not fed they speedily get into a bad way, while they may go without beer or whiskey indefinitely and not miss anything but the headache or a protuberant and wobbling paunch. It seems to be the doctor's idea that the grain should be made into bread and come to think of it the idea is not at all foolish.

Personal Armies

It is difficult to see why any citizen should desire to raise a personal army and lead it to France at just the time when the United States is arranging to have a military force for this purpose. without at the same time feeling the without at the same time feeling the stronger urge of the limelight, naturally would affiliate with the real army.

Chances are that even so, there would be glory enough for all, as usual.

Aiming For Easy Marks

Again they have found a Raphael, this time with another picture painted upon the original.

It was a well-known habit of amateurs to obtain a Raphael canvas and smear it over, disposing of their own work without revealing the presence of the master's work. Probably this was done for a joke on the purchaser.

The discovery of a Raphael at this day is merely the beginning of a quest for an easy mark with a large roll.

They are said to be at prices much lower than the present quotations, and in sufficient quantities to assure the new army an adequate supply at a great money saving.

HEARD FINE REPORTS

City Federation P. T. A. Met
Last Night, Elects Staff
New Officers

The City Federation of the P-T. A. held its regular meeting last evening at the Intermediate school building with Mrs. J. N. Anderson, the president, presiding. The meeting opened by all joining in singing "America," and Miss Isabel Anderson favored the meeting with a piano solo.

Reports from the various officers were given and each president gave a three-minute report from each of the schools of the city. Mrs. J. R. Baker spoke for the high school; Mrs. Barrows for Intermediate; Mrs. N. A. Beals for Lincoln school; Mrs. W. W. Simon from Roosevelt school; Mrs. Rodriguez for the Mexican P-T. A. from Roosevelt; Mrs. Drake of McKinley; Mrs. Noble of Fifth Street; Mrs. C. F. Miller of Jefferson school; Mrs. H. J. Forgy of Washington school. Mrs. McCleery of Spurgeon school was unavoidably absent. Mrs. W. H. Shepherd reported on Courtesy, Mrs. Patterson on Ways and Means, Mrs. Baker on Vocational Conference and Mrs. Anderson spoke on the Red Cross work.

These reports were splendid and showed most efficient work done during the past year in all the schools by the different P-T. A's.

Among some of the things they are doing is the equipping of playgrounds in the city for the use of the children during the summer, one playground to be at the Poly High School and one at the Washington school, where a supervisor will have charge of the work.

A home teacher for the Mexican people is asked for and it is hoped that this will be accomplished for next year. Many more good things done at these meetings cannot be told, and many more should have been present to hear the splendid reports.

The president announced that the picnic lunch for the teachers would be held at Birch Park, Thursday, June 7, giving the teachers another opportunity of a delightful meeting together.

Prof. D. K. Hammond, chairman of the nominating committee, gave the following report and the officers were unanimously elected: President, Mrs. J. N. Anderson; first vice-president, Mrs. H. J. Forgy; second vice-president, W. M. Clayton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. A. Patterson; recording secretary, Mrs. Lea Warren; financial secretary, Miss Vanche Plumb; treasurer, Mrs. R. A. Cushman; parliamentarian, J. R. Baker; auditor, Mrs. Allie Cain; historian, Mrs. N. A. Beals.

FORM NEW CLUB

Membership of Ten for Informal Kensington Planned at Yesterday's Meeting

A jolly little Kensington Club, with a membership planned at ten, was organized yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. G. Morrow, at her home on East Tenth street. Mrs. Morrow had adorned the rooms with a profusion of artistically arranged roses and the time sped swiftly away with needlework and merry chat.

Mrs. Morrow's pleasant arrangements for a picnic feature all went away on account of the gray weather, but the members were delighted with the pretty lunch baskets which she arranged and trimmed so daintily, each in a different color and topped with a sweet little boutonniere. Instead of eating the tempting dainties in the out-of-doors arbor, the dining room was utilized and at the table each lady found a nosegay corresponding to the one upon her basket.

The members of the club besides Mrs. Morrow are Meses. Asa Vandermaast, H. C. Head, Holmes Bishop, I. M. Sproull, J. E. Gowen, L. L. Whitson, Weber and P. R. Reynolds. Mrs. Raftery and Miss C. E. Dresser were guests for the afternoon.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. J. E. Gowen.

FAMILY DINNER

Twelfth Birthday Anniversary of Miss Helen Menges Celebrated Last Night

Mrs. Stella Menges was hostess yesterday evening at a delightful 6:30 o'clock family dinner, honoring the twelfth birthday of her daughter, Miss Helen Menges.

The Menges garden is now abloom with magnificent roses and dainty Cecile Brunners were used for a lovely centerpiece, arranged in a cut glass bowl with carrot fern blossoms. A birthday cake was a feature and the honoree received a number of appreciated gifts.

After dinner the time was passed in conversation and watching the antics of the little folks of the family.

Besides the immediate family, there were present Dr. and Mrs. Mark Menges and little daughter Gertrude of Fullerton, Mrs. Mina Butcher, Mrs. Cora Cavins, Miss Wilhelmina Cavins, Miss Bernice Roper, Mrs. Mina Taylor and little daughters, Marian and Virginia.

Kansas Picnic
Former residents of Clay and Cloud counties, Kansas, will picnic at Bixby Park, Long Beach, on May 30, Decoration Day. There will be a basket dinner at noon with music and addresses in the afternoon. All former residents of these two counties are cordially invited to be present. Dr. E. L. Enoch and Mrs. C. T. Elsie of this city are president and secretary of the society. It will be the annual meeting and picnic of the society and officers will be elected.

Surprised Husband on Birthday
Mrs. William Mize of 602 West Third street, planned and carried out a very pleasant and successful surprise for her husband on his twenty-third birthday, which occurred yesterday.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with white peonies and roses and after the surprise of the coming of the guests was over, whist made pleasant pastime for the evening.

Mr. Mize was the recipient of a number of useful gifts and late in the evening, the hostess served delicious homemade cake, coffee and candy.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Galbraith, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. West, Mrs. James and Miss Winifred James.

PRETTY SECRET OUT

Miss Minnie Kopplin, Popular Teacher, Wife of Edwin Benedict Since Easter

Miss Minnie Kopplin, one of Roosevelt's popular school teachers, will hereafter write her name Mrs. Edwin Benedict, which she has had a right to do since Easter Sunday, April 8, when a secret wedding was solemnized at San Diego in the Congregational church by Rev. Thorp, at 8:30 a. m. Mr. Benedict is the pressman for the Register and son of Mrs. Emma Benedict.

The church was prettily decorated for the Easter services and the double ring ceremony was performed in the presence of the bride's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. H. Kopplin, and Mr. and Mrs. Mills of Tacoma, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wagner, the ladies being sisters of the bride.

Following the ceremony a trip was taken to a mountain resort, The Willows, where a delightful wedding breakfast was enjoyed.

The young couple returned to their respective homes and cleverly kept their secret until the bride presented her resignation to the board of education.

The wedding was hastened on account of the presence in the Southland of the sister of the bride and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mills, the original date for the nuptials being June 27. Belated congratulations will be showered in abundance upon Mr. and Mrs. Benedict, who will make their home here.

Mrs. C. L. Reed, a recent bride, formerly Miss Genevieve Atkinson, was presented with a handsome vase by the teachers as a wedding gift.

In the service of the appetizing refreshments of ice cream and cake carried out in the prevailing tints, Mrs. Rose was assisted by Miss Ferne Smith. The table was centered with pink and white roses and the dainty nut cups were pink.

The invited list included Misses Vanche Plumb, Louise Streckenbach, Anna Rickerich, Lana Brokaw, Sophia Hardy, Edith Cornell, Joella Sharp, Bessie McCord, Lillian Fitz, Mrs. Grace Allen and Mrs. C. L. Reed.

The surprise feature of the evening to her was the presentation of a set of handsome silver salad forks by the class, after she had received their good wishes, tightly packed in a small box.

Those present were Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Beck, Misses Ferne Smith, Corine Burns, Annie Snow, Beulah Cornett, Grace Casner, Lillian Fitz, Ruth Engle, Grace and Emily Birtcher, Bess McCord, Ursula Lee, Hazel Fifeid, Vivian Linden, Edith Blauer, Nelda Michel; Mrs. Roy Roepke and Mrs. Charles Doty.

A Grunion Party
A party of eighteen Santa Anas today were distributing grunion to friends in this city as the result of a big catch last night at San Onofre. The party had a fine time and caught a sack full of the little wrigglers.

J. M. Sharpe, section foreman at San Onofre, and his wife made themselves popular with the "bunch" by dishing them up all kinds of good things to eat—hamburger sandwiches, egg sandwiches, "hot dog," sandwiches and good coffee. The edibles were taken along by the fishing party.

The fish came out on the sand between 10 and 10:30, literally covering the beach. It took but a short time to fill the sack.

In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jernigan, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Milton, Mrs. J. E. Liebig, Mrs. Bessie McDonald, Misses Verga and Arden Trumbull, Ruby Cameron, Justine Whitney, Nada Woodward, Alma Cooley, Laura Crane, Lella Dolg and Blanche Anderson.

REGISTRATION DATE, KEEP IN MIND JUNE 5

Keep in mind that registration under the draft law is to be made on Tuesday, June 5.

Upon that day every male person from 21 to 30, inclusive, must report to the registrar of his precinct, and be registered.

Any person who is so sick that he cannot be there that day may now send someone to the county clerk's office and register for him.

Any person who is in this county from some other locality and knows he cannot be at his home precinct, should go to the county clerk now and register.

The responsibility for getting registered is upon the man himself. He must register regardless of his nativity and regardless of whether or not he is an American citizen.

MILLS AGAIN SETS OUT CHARTER ARGUMENT

The Register is in receipt of a communication from A. A. Mills of Anaheim in which Mills again sets forth his reasons for believing that a county charter is an advisable thing for Orange County. He says that with a charter the people of the county could govern itself instead of being governed by the state legislature, and if they did not like a salary bill the people could act upon it by means of the referendum. At present there is no recourse upon a salary bill for Orange County except through a statewide referendum.

PICNIC JUNE 2
TUSTIN PLAN

TUSTIN, May 23.—Notice has been given that a big community picnic for Tustin will be held Saturday, June 2, at Orange County Park. Everybody is invited to attend.

The committee in charge of transportation comprises B. F. Beswick, W. S. McDougal, S. W. Stanley and Charles Bowman. Any one who has no way of going to the park on that day should call up one of these members of the transportation committee. Everybody will take a picnic dinner. Coffee will be furnished by the Tustin Parent-Teacher Association.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Tingley, Miss Margaret Tingley and Mrs. W. A. Jones enjoyed an automobile trip to Hemet last Saturday afternoon, returning Sunday evening. They visited their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Murphy, former residents of Tustin, also Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cranston and Mr. and Mrs. Charles White, who have recently moved to Hemet from Tustin. They were royally entertained by their relatives and friends and enjoyed every moment of their visit.

A game of ball between the boys of the Orange Intermediate school was played Monday night and resulted in a score of 3 to 2 in favor of Tustin. Miss Grace Hight, Tustin fourth grade teacher, accompanied the Tustin bunch.

Last Friday night was an evening of fun for the large crowd who attended the "Rube" dance at K. of P. hall. Prizes were awarded for the most artistic lady's and gentleman's costume carrying out the "hayseed" idea. The lady's prize was won by Miss Rowena

Coffee and the gentleman's prize by Willis Cook. Delicious punch was served during the evening and Smith's orchestra of Santa Ana furnished inspiring music for the dances. It is expected that another dance will be given Friday night, June 1.

The closing exercises of the Tustin Grammar school will be held Friday evening, June 8.

Rev. J. A. Stevenson of the First Presbyterian church, Santa Ana, will deliver an address to the students.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Tustin Presbyterian church, according to a new rule adopted at their last meeting, will hold an all-day meeting Friday of this week, May 25, at the church. ## TALBERT

ODOR OF PAINT
CAUSES WOMAN
TO BE SICK

Popular Talbert Resident Is Married to Young Man From Anaheim

TALBERT, May 22.—Mrs. Chas. Grisest of Greenville, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Walker of this place, suffered severe results from paint fumes inhaled last Saturday while doing some inside painting at her home. Sunday morning the attending physician almost despaired of her recovery but through his diligent efforts the danger from the poison was removed and she is recovering rapidly from the experience. As it is dangerous for her to inhale any of the fumes again until fully recovered, Mrs. Grisest has appropriated the porch as a sleeping apartment, also taking her meals there, and she spends as little time inside the house as possible.

The ceremony uniting Miss Emma Grisest, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grisest, and one of Talbert's popular young women, to Mr. Bernard Stoffel of Anaheim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stoffel, was performed at St. Mary's Catholic Church at Huntington Beach by Father O'Riley, pastor of the church, at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The young couple were attended at the altar by Miss Annie Stoffel, sister of the groom, and Walter Grisest, brother of the bride. The bride was becomingly attired in a lovely going away suit of white with appropriate accessories and carried a beautiful bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses and maiden hair fern.

The church was made beautiful by a profusion of pink and white roses with lacy fern forming a perfect bower of beauty about the altar.

The immediate families of the contracting parties alone witnessed the ceremony, at the close of which all motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding breakfast was served, covers being laid for twelve.

Amid a shower of good wishes, rice and tin cans, Mr. and Mrs. Stoffel left immediately afterward in their machine for a week's trip to a secret destination. Upon their return they will make their home in Anaheim.

May Baskets
On Monday evening of last week a party of the neighborhood children, accompanied by a chaperone, presented a number of beautiful bouquets and May baskets at many of the homes about Talbert.

When the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bullock was reached they proceeded to throw in gratis with the May basket a charivari of unusual proportions and were cordially received and pleasantly entertained the remainder of the evening.

The largest crowd that has yet been in attendance at the local South Methodist Church was present at the service last Sunday evening when Rev. Robert P. Howell, the presiding elder, delivered one of his usual impressive sermons and also conducted the quarterly meeting which is the third of this conference year.

The services were curtailed on account of it being necessary for Rev. Howell to take the 8:45 car from Santa Ana for the city to make connections with the train he was to take for a distant point in the state where he was due for an appointment Monday morning.

Rev. Andrews took him to Santa Ana in his machine.

The congregation spent an hour in a most enjoyable song service after the departure of the ministers.

A. Martel, proprietor of the local meat market, has remodeled his Ford machine and is now using it for delivering orders.

Mrs. H. W. Dunn arrived with her daughter Florence at the J. G. Parsons home Friday of last week for a visit of several days. Their home is in Arizona and the trip was made for the benefit of Miss Florence's health.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Flythe motored to Long Beach for the day Sunday.

U. S. Kanawyer Dead
D. E. Ford of Santa Ana was in this neighborhood Monday afternoon prior to taking the evening train for Fresno, where he was called by a telegram received that afternoon telling of the sudden death of Ulysses S. Kanawyer, who for a number of years resided here, where he has hosts of friends. The Ford and Kanawyer ranches adjoined and the men were inseparable friends. Both of leaving here moved near Santa Ana, where they were again near neighbors. It is five years since Mr. Kanawyer moved from here and two years ago he went to Fresno, where he has since been. He leaves

Any Corn Will Dry Up and Lift Out, Says a Cincinnati Authority

—Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called freezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain.

This drug is sticky but dries at once and is said to simply shrivel up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.—Advertisement.

Attend Picnic
On Saturday Rev. and Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. L. C. Rix and little sons, Edward and Victor, motored to Orange County Park where they joined in the delightful picnic held by the Greenville Sunday school. There were about fifty in the crowd and every minute was pleasantly spent with games, hill climbing and boating. At the noon hour a most tempting dinner consisting of all the good things imaginable, was spread on one of the long tables under the giant oaks near the pavilion and it is needless to say that at the close of the meal the table presented a decidedly different appearance than when it began.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walker, who moved to their new home that day, were given a unanimous welcome by their many friends who tendered them a rousing charivari, all spending a most enjoyable evening together. Games and music occupied the evening until a late hour, when "treats," consisting of ice cream and cake, candy and cigars were brought out by the host and hostess and served to the guests. The young couple are occupying one of Mrs. Chandler's houses which is located in town.

At 1 o'clock last Friday afternoon the pretty ring ceremony was used by Rev. Alvah Andrews, pastor of the local South Methodist church, in uniting in marriage Harvey K. Walker, a popular young man of this place, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Walker, and Miss Harriet Plavan, who formerly lived here and is the charming daughter of P. The wedding took place at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Planchon north of Greenville. Mr. Planchon being a cousin of the bride and Mrs. Planchon the sister of the groom. This had also been Miss Planchon's home for several years.

Charles Grisest and Frank Planchon, an uncle, Arthur Crosby, Miss Helena Ford and Miss Emma Planchon, cousin of the bride, and Rev. Andrews.

Delicious light refreshments were served by Mrs. Planchon before the departure of the bridal couple who went directly to Riverside that evening. Before returning to Talbert Sunday evening they also visited San Bernardino, returning by the way of Los Angeles.

GARDEN GROVE

BODY WINDS UP
YEAR'S WORK

GARDEN GROVE, May 24.—The Parent-Teacher Association held a social meeting in the school auditorium Wednesday afternoon, the closing meeting of a successful year's work.

The retiring officers have been untiring in their efforts to make the year's work all that it should be and with the aid and support of Professor Fitz and his capable staff of teachers, good results have been obtained in every department of the work. The officers elected for the coming fiscal year are, also, earnest, conscientious and capable and with the loyal support of both faculty and parents will be able to make the association a monument of help felt by everyone in the community, whether or not a member. Mrs. Lake is active and efficient and all will aid her in every way possible. The exhibits in each of the rooms were very good, from the birds and hammocks in the lower grades to the ukuleles in the Eighth.

The newly-installed officers are: President, Mrs. H. A. Lake; vice president, Mrs. Royal B. Richey; recording secretary, Mrs. Henry Bon Durant; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Roy McKee; treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Harper; parliamentarian, Mrs. Henry Boney; historian, Prof. S. R. Fitz.

The program for the afternoon consisted of "America," by the audience; piano duet, Misses Lee; piano solo, little Miss Russell, followed by installation of officers, and a social hour, during which Misses Vera Hale, Mary Collins, Marguerite Woodridge and Thelma Emerson of the Eighth grade, were the charming dispensers of an assortment of delicious cookies and fruit punch, prepared in the domestic science department, where Miss Ethel Archer has presided during the past year with exceptionally good results.

The sewing on exhibition in the Sixth grade shows what marvelous results may be obtained from good instruction and close application of the pupils. Mrs. Lake received fifteen new names for the P-T. A.

E. E. Beck, freight agent for the Pacific Electric, was taken to the company's hospital in Los Angeles Monday, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. On Sunday he complained but did his work, taking the 6 o'clock p. m. mail as usual. During the night his condition became alarming and at 10 a. m. Monday the company sent a special car to take him to the hospital. His wife is with him and on Wednesday Mr. Sandman received word that he was doing as well as could be expected.

Those who enjoyed the convention of the San Diego District of Foreign Missions at Riverside Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Cook, Rev. and Mrs. Reinius and Mrs. Earl Baum, Warren A. Wheeler, John H. Sandman, John T. Watson, John Steele, Oscar O. Young and Albert J. Chaffee. A Continuous
Chain of Boiling Points

High Boiling Points
for power & mileage

Medium Boiling Points
for quick & smooth
acceleration

Low Boiling Points
for easy starting

Why
Straight-Distilled
Gasoline

Because, in a straight-distilled gasoline the boiling points gradually rise in a continuous unbroken chain, giving easy starting, quick and smooth acceleration, power and mileage. Boiling points also reveal gasoline quality. As the U. S. Bureau of Standards states, gravity tells you nothing. No mixture, however cleverly concocted and no matter what its gravity, can contain the correct, unbroken series of boiling points.

Red Crown is guaranteed to be a straight-distilled refinery gasoline, the boiling points of which form a continuous chain. Red Crown is not a mixture.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Benny Leonard, New York's wonderful lightweight, will have to just make the best of it and try with all his might when he meets Freddie Welsh next Monday night in New York. He never will get a real, long distance chance at Freddie's title, nor will he ever get a short chance in a state where decisions can be given.

Leonard's record is enough to shoot a streak of goose-flesh up Welsh's back. He has broken out with a rash of knockouts, distributed over the chins of a long and healthy list of young men who have come up until they met the flying fists of the New Yorker. A string of knockouts is something the British dodger never had attached to his name. In fact there are very few instances in a glance at his record when an observer can find K. O. after a man's name.

It will be the third meeting between the two boys. Some time ago, when Leonard hadn't perfected a knock-out punch Welsh agreed to meet him and was given the surprise of his championship life. Welsh was in poor condition and was given a sound beating by the youngster. Then they were matched again. The bout was held in Washington Park, Brooklyn. The trimming Welsh gave Leonard at that encounter will be remembered as the most thorough thing that ever happened to a young shining light. Welsh punched holes in Leonard's defense and he moved so fast Leonard never was able to do more than lay a peevish finger on him.

The third meeting will come after long drilling and building on the part of Leonard. Having once defeated the champion he has felt ever since that it needed only the proper condition to give him the chance to knock the title from Welsh's head on to his own.

Billy Gibson took Leonard into retirement shortly after he started handling his affairs, and he announced—much to the amusement of the sporting public—that Leonard was developing a Joe Gans punch. Joe, the old-timer will remember, had a habit of dropping his fist on an opponent's jaw from almost any angle, with the result that the fight was over. Leonard came out after working on this punch and began to lay out his opponents. His right hand is the deadly mitt, but he is able to smash away with either hand. In fact, he upsets with the off-paw with fully as much vigor and accuracy as the average boxer does with the right one. He is the fastest worker to date among the lightweights. He is a finished workman at putting his man out. And he has the best chance to become the world's lightweight champion that has been the lot of a boxer since Welsh came into doubtful possession of the crown.

The end of boxing in New York state probably will see Welsh's retirement for keeps. When they take away the big boxing center where he has been able to be beaten without losing his title he doubtless will be content to stop stalling and go to work on his health farm. Hence, it behooves Leonard to work fast and hard when he enters the ring with Welsh.

The showing of the lightweight champion against Johnny Kilbane, the feather king, in their recent New York meeting will swing betting in favor of Leonard. There will be plenty of betting, no doubt, that Leonard will stop the champion. The fans realize that Welsh is on the decline and they will expect to see a new lightweight champion after the Monday night go.

U. S. WARSHIPS AID IN VICTORY OVER DIVERS

LONDON, May 24.—The American destroyer unit is doing its share to aid the allied navies in the warfare on U-boats, and which a really important victory has been achieved, as indicated by the weekly shipping statement, indicating today that for the third week in succession the British tonnage losses have been kept below the large figures which caused so much alarm in April. Eighteen merchantmen of more than 1600 tons, nine vessels of less than 1600 tons and three fishing trawlers were sunk, according to the weekly statement. The American destroyers are playing no small part in the anti-diver war, said an Admiralty official.

WHOSE AUTO IS IT? QUESTION FOR COURT

Anaheim Garage Man Denies That He Took Machine That Did Not Belong to Him

Did Charles H. Rockwell of Anaheim steal his own automobile? If it was his automobile, of course, he did not steal it.

S. R. Walter came first to the court house and declared that because he owned Rockwell some money, Rockwell went upon the street and took possession of Walter's Chalmers machine. The machine was run into Rockwell's garage, and was there kept.

When Rockwell was brought before Justice Cox he had quite a different story to tell. He said that the machine was turned over to Walter on a lease note arrangement, by which title remained with Rockwell until Walter finished his payments. Rockwell said that Walter was behind in his payments when Rockwell heard that Walter was trying to sell the machine.

Thereupon Rockwell went out, found the machine and took possession when Walter failed to make payments.

Rockwell says that after that Walter went to an Anaheim bank and

That so often come with kidney troubles.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for this very purpose.

Here is a Santa Ana woman's testimony of their worth.

Mrs. M. Scott, 901 East Sixth St., says: "My kidneys were disordered and I suffered from pains in my back. My kidneys acted irregularly, causing me much annoyance, especially at night. My feet became swollen and I suffered from a dull ache in the small of my back. Another of the family had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results, so I took them. Two boxes cured the backache and regulated my kidneys."

ORANGE COUNTY STAGES ASKING PERMITS FOR RATE RAISE

Declare Present Fares Do Not Render jitney Business Profitable

Railroad Commissioners Harvey D. Loveland and Edwin O. Edgerton will hear tomorrow, in the offices of the commission in Los Angeles, the first jitney cases brought before the commission under the jurisdiction over jitney lines given it at the recent session of the California legislature.

The White Bus Line, the Crown Stage Line and the Valley Stage Line have made applications to the Railroad Commission for authority to raise their rates for the transportation of passengers between Anaheim, Fullerton, Los Angeles, Orange and Santa Ana, on the plea that the present fares are unprofitable. The Valley Stage Line is a co-partnership operating passenger busses between Anaheim, Fullerton, Los Angeles and intermediate points, and carrying on a joint tariff with the Crown Stage Line, which runs between Anaheim, Orange and Santa Ana. The White Bus Line has a number of jitneys between Anaheim, Fullerton, Los Angeles and intermediate points, and also connects with the Crown line.

Both the Valley and the White Bus lines filed their tariffs with the Railroad Commission and had them approved, the rates being as follows:

From Anaheim or Orange to Los Angeles, or vice versa, 75c, one way; and $1 a round trip.

From Fullerton to Los Angeles and vice versa, 70c one way; and $1 a round trip.

All the companies now desire to change as follows:

Anaheim to Los Angeles, one way, 75c; round trip, $1.25; ten-ride commutation books, $5.

Fullerton to Los Angeles, one way, 70c; round trip, $1.15; ten-ride commutation books, $4.75.

Santa Ana to Los Angeles, one way, 80c; round trip, $1.40.

Orange to Los Angeles, one way, 80c; round trip, $1.40.

The White Bus Line and the Valley line are competitors and both say that they are losing money at their present rates. More than 500 jitney concerns have filed with the Railroad Commission their tariffs and rules. This does not indicate the great number of automobiles engaged in this traffic, nor even the number of lines operating, because one tariff filed may be for an association of a hundred or more jitney men. Probably more than 1000 lines are operating under the commission's jurisdiction. The commission has control of all automobile or horse-drawn freight or passenger carriers, which operate as common carriers of passengers or freight over regular routes, between fixed termini in California, except such as operate entirely within incorporated cities or towns. The proportion of passenger lines to freight lines is about 8 to 1.

SENATOR LANE'S WIFE AT SIDE AS HE DIES

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—United States Senator Harry Lane of Oregon, will be buried in Portland next week, although announcement of arrangements for disposition of his body had not been made early today by his wife. Senator Lane died at St. Francis Hospital last night after several months of suffering from a general nervous breakdown complicated by high blood pressure.

Mrs. Lane was at his bedside when he died. His health, which had been failing for a year, was not considered in jeopardy until early in April when he was sent to a sanitarium near Washington. Later he started for his home in Portland but was stricken en route and was ordered to the hospital here. His physicians several days ago abandoned hope of saving his life.

GENERAL PEACE MEET FOREDOOMED, FORECAST

STOCKHOLM, May 24.—The German plan for a "general peace conference" of Socialists next month is foredoomed, in the opinion of well-informed, sympathetic non-Socialist observers here. Instead of such a general meeting, they predicted merely a continuance of the group meetings of Socialists of various countries, as now in progress.

The prediction was based on the wide divergence of views on peace terms between various delegations.

of annexing an inch of territory, the result would have been different."

That the German censors should have permitted an expression of regret over failure of the German plot for separate peace with Russia to pass may be highly significant. Every indication to date has been that Germany's strongest effort to this end was still to be exerted through the German-dominated "Socialist peace conference" at Stockholm next month. United Press dispatches today from Stockholm indicated, in this connection, that leaders now there were convinced there could be no general "conference," but only a series of meetings.
